Elk Point's first-ever 4-H sheep show and sale was a crowd-pleasing added attraction at Friday's Elk Point 4-H Multi Club Achievement Day, which also featured horse, photography and craft projects along with the traditional steer show.

Another addition to the show was the Cleaver Kids, a new division of 4-H that introduces the concept of 'Learn to do by doing' to children aged six to eight years. Three of the four Cleaver Kids, Colton Wells, Dayton Wells and Dallas Bristow, proudly led in the spring calves they have been working with, while the fourth, Maja Harms, led in her well-trained lamb. Their leader, Melinda Heathcote, says she thoroughly enjoyed working with the youngsters, and described the beginners' program as "a learning project" that gives them their first taste of the many skills to be learned in 4-H.

Members of the sheep, horse, craft and photography projects joined the beef project members in the ring to start the show with the judging competition, all carefully writing down their reasons for placing the steers led in by adult volunteers. The judging winners were announced near the end of the show, with photography and sheep member Morgan Baker placing first in the junior category, for the RONA award, and sheep member Carson Vogel placing second for the prize sponsored by Dallan and Sherry Wandler. First place in the intermediate age group also went to a sheep member, Alexis Bristow taking home the Kurek Farms trophy, while her cousin Ashley Bristow, in the beef and crafts projects, placed second for the True Rod Welding award. Beef member Robyn Ockerman topped the senior category for a trophy from Lakeland Tire, edging out Britney Heathcote, whose prize was sponsored by Heather and Travis Desilets.

Grooming and showmanship were next on the program for both beef and sheep projects.

Changed-up car show brings new excitement

Close to 60 vintage and show vehicles packed downtown Elk Point on Saturday, but the show didn't stop there, with food, home business and craft vendors, two entertainment venues, two high-stakes competitions and a pancake breakfast all adding up to fun at the first annual 'Cars, Crafts and Cuisine.' The much-enhanced version of the Elk Point Auto Club Show and Shine brought out excellent crowds, despite cool and cloudy weather.

The People's Choice at the largest show and shine in some years was a 1928 Model A Ford pickup exhibited by Ken Hlewka of Two Hills. It also won the Oldest Vehicle award, and first place in the Antique category, with second place going to a 1953 MG Midget convertible shown by T. Knowler of Lloydminster. A 1947 Ford Coupe shown by Denis Houle of Legal certainly didn't show its age and somehow found itself in the Post '60 category, where it won first place, with second going to Eugene Gryna of Innisfree for his 1962 Chev Impala.

Roy Missal of St. Paul won the Show category with his low-slung, burnt-orange 1964 Buick Riviera, Daryl Molineux placing second with his 1966 Chevelle. Many-time exhibitor Larry Nordquist of Lloydminster topped the Modified category with his 1940 Ford Coupe, closely followed by Brian Burton of St. Paul with his 1956 Chevy. Two local men took the awards in the Motorcycle category, Ron Lesyk placing first with his 2010 Harley and Ken Stewart second with a 1952 Harley.

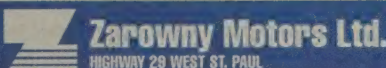

Lionel Romanchuk took top honors in the Truck category with his 1968 El Camino, while Roger Lozeau of St. Vincent was second with a gleaming 1978 Bronco.

Bailey said the members have also been perfecting their skills in goat tying, pole bending m breakaway roping and other rodeo events, and will be hosting a 4-H Rodeo in Elk Point on Aug. 20.

Steers were divided into two groups for preliminary judging, with Taylor Robbie and Lindon Nelson chosen from the first group and Fawn Ockerman and Britney Heathcote from the second to compete in the final round, which took place after everyone enjoyed a fine supper featuring both beef and lamb.

Conformation judges Ian and Jessi Selte made their final inspection of the four, with Ian declaring the well-finished steers "tremendously thick. It all comes down to the finish." He gave Taylor Robbie's big black steer the championship slap on the rump, winning her the Elk Point Co-op banner, and chose Fawn Ockerman's curly-coated steer as the reserve champion, for the Prairie Tech Oilfield Services banner.

Canada Day Idol limit almost there

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

An extended deadline for Elk Point Canada Day Idol contestants is bringing in the last few vocalists to fill Dee Pankiw's July 1 program. Last Friday, with four days to go before today's cut-off, Pankiw said, "I need about five more. It's getting close and I'll take the first 20 paid entrants that I get."

The 2011 Idol contestants include "some completely new faces, and I've had calls from people in Cold Lake and Frog Lake" that had not competed before, Pankiw noted.

Other details of the July 1 celebration are also coming together. Canada Day committee treasurer Deanna Easthope reported that more than $2,000 in donations had arrived between the April and May meetings, "and they're still coming in." She also reported that the parade band has confirmed their attendance, and "all the right things have been done" to facilitate a potential fly-past by a Cold Lake air force jet.

The Ukrainian Orthodox Church has been added to the food lineup, with a pyrogy lunch at the Seniors' Recreation Centre from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Darryl Fraess and his band will headline the afternoon outdoor stage show, with Elk Point Ukrainian Dance Club, the Elizabeth Settlement Métis dancers and vocalists Debra McQuinn and Rachael Walton also in the confirmed lineup. A second stage show in the downtown area may not be a possibility this year, because organizers and a sound system have not been found to date.

Plans for all other aspects of the day, from the pancake breakfast to the Farm Survival Challenge, are proceeding well, with a final scheduling meeting slated for next week.

Jason Fisher and Debbie Goertzen present Maureen Henkel, fund development officer with the Alberta Shock Trauma Air Rescue Service Foundation, with their latest donation of $12,000 from the Elk Point Emergency Services STARS golf tournament.

STARS contribution tops $155,000

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Twelve years of Elk Point Emergency Services STARS golf tournaments have contributed a total of $155,000 toward keeping the Alberta Shock Trauma Air Rescue Services in the sky, according to STARS' fund development officer Maureen Henkel, who was on hand for last Wednesday's tournament.

Henkel accepted a $12,000 donation, and said the money is used to cover STARS operating costs.

"We very much appreciate how much support there is in this community. This is my third or fourth time at the tournament, and it's nice to see familiar faces and to talk to all the people."

This year's STARS tournament included 25 teams, with a combined Elk Point and District Lions Club/Elk Point Oilmen's Association team made up of Leonard Campbell, Ryan Mudryk, Gadowski, Tim Smereka, and Tim Havener turning in Jeff Hyslop, Keith the low score.

Connie Henderson (right) Stephanie Ferris and Amanda Stacey were in the money as the winners of the Ladies' Spark Plug Changing competition at 'Cars, Crafts and Cuisine' on Saturday.

Seniors Week breakfast

Town Coun. Bernice Capjack stirred up another pan of scrambled eggs while Diana Anderson and Mayor Parrish Tung concentrated on clean-up at Sunday's Seniors' Week pancake breakfast, co-sponsored by the Town of Elk Point and the County of St. Paul and attended by an appreciative crowd of seniors.

TD Correction

In last week's coverage of the TD Canada Trust presentation of sponsorship for the TD Eco Education Room of the Elk Point Visitor Information Eco Centre, the amount of the donation was listed as $10,000 when in fact it is $15,000. This amount will come to the Elk Point Chamber of Commerce in three annual $5,000 installments, and will give TD five years of sponsorship for the facility. Our apologies to TD Canada Trust and to the chamber for the error.

Saluting seniors

June 6 to 12 is Seniors' Week in Alberta, an opportunity to honour the contribution made to our province by its older citizens.

Mary Anne Jablonski, Minister of Alberta Seniors and Community Supports, calls seniors "a valuable resource to our young people. As our neighbours and grandparents, caregivers and volunteers, the roles seniors play in our province are innumerable and meaningful."

The 2011 theme, "Vibrant Leaders in the Community," recognizes seniors' continued contributions, the minister says. "Seniors will always be invaluable leaders in our province, sharing their wisdom and knowledge to enrich our communities, towns and cities."

Elk Point always busy and involved seniors certainly fit in that category. They built our community, and the habit of working for its betterment is one that just can't be broken. Happy Seniors' Week, everyone!

WAY BACK WHEN...

Water rationing, new trail ride, new show venue

HERE'S THE NEWS THAT MADE THE HEADLINES OF THE LAKELAND REVIEW AND ELK POINT REVIEW FOR THE WEEK OF JUNE 7 IN...

1986

Elk Point Lions Club's Journey for Sight walk-a-thon raised over $2,300, with Denise Kissel and Madeline Foisy claiming the School Challenge trophy, Marshall Kachmar the Oil Patch Challenge and the Oldest Participant awards, Jaime Spence the Youngest Participant and Lee Wannechko and Tammy Boratynec the First Finisher awards. Water rationing was put into effect after a week of record high temperatures.

1991

Improvements were underway at the Elk Point Recreation Land, with fencing around the ball diamonds and installation of pit toilets at the campground underway, and installation of water and gas lines, construction of the Lions Club's concession booth and a playground slated for the near future. Seniors Week was off to a good start, with an interdenominational church service, entertainment by Elk Point Choral Society and a barbecue supper all part of an open house at Heritage Lodge.

1996

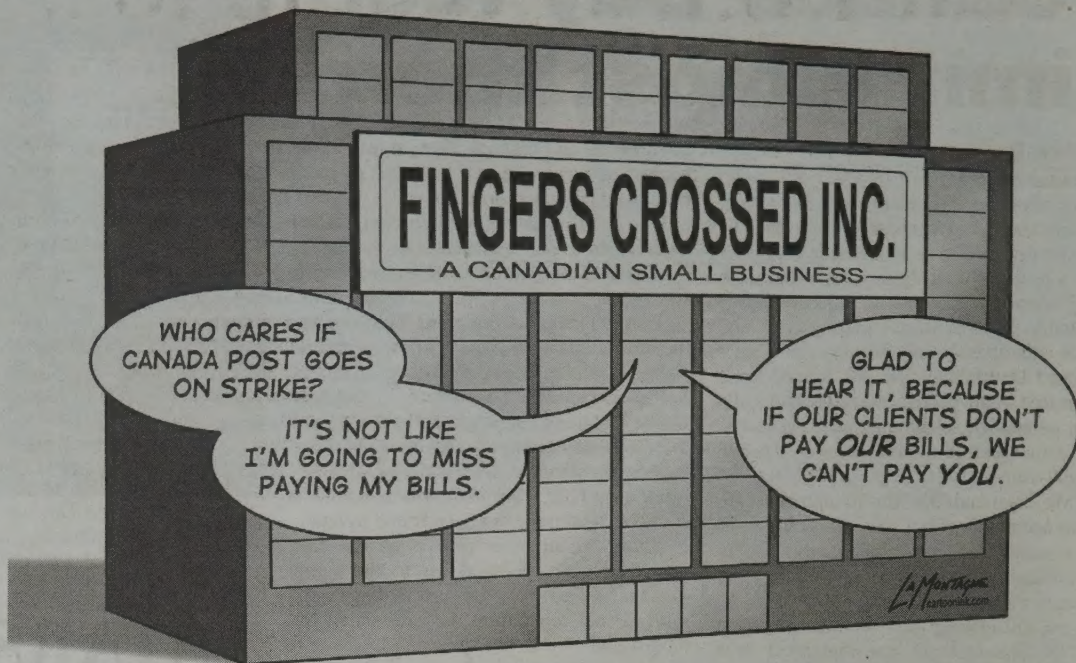

Peter Danyluk showed Elk Point's grand champion 4-H steer, with Monica Naber showing the reserve, while Tim Havener and George Danyluk showed the supreme and reserve champion females. The dozen graduates who made up Heinsburg's Class of 1996 chose 'Hold on to your dreams' as their theme and David Skolarchuk as their valedictorian.

2001

Michelle Leckie showed Elk Point's 4-H grand champion steer and Nichole Havener both the reserve champion steer and supreme champion heifer at Achievement Day, with Nicholas Zapesocki showing the reserve champion female. Heinsburg Community Club hosted their first-ever trail ride, with horse-drawn wagons, horseback riders, cyclists, quadders and hikers all taking part in the trip up the Iron Horse Trail.

2006

The Iron Horse Trail staging area shone as a venue for the annual Elk Point Auto Club Show and Shine, with 42 entries, including five gleaming Edsels. New member Taylor Legault showed Elk Point's 4-H grand champion steer, while Robyn Ockerman showed the supreme champion female and Janice Tymofichuk showing the reserve champions in both categories.

GUEST COLUMN

Blooms in spring

Now that the middle of June is here, hopefully all the spring cleaning is started or finished. That means; some of us have de-junked our homes, finished our garage sales and of course, planted our flowers. O.K., O.K., I realize before spring cleaning we had to de-junk. We all need to uncomplicate our lives and de-junk our houses so that we can feel more comfortable in our own homes, and our own heads. The big question now becomes - how does one de-junk?

N Begin by emotionally cutting the strings to belongings and look at them in a totally different way. Start with one drawer, one closet, one corner or one pile. When you are finished, move to the next one. Note: You are allowed to be sentimental, but use good value judgment and remember you have a lot of life ahead of you and you just can't keep everything - there simply isn't enough room.

N Ask yourself: 1) Do I need it? 2) Do I use it? 3) Do I (still) like it? 4) Would I miss it? 5) Do I have room for it? (A better question to ask yourself when you buy something is, "What does it replace and what am I willing to give up having it?") 6) Will something else that I already have do the job?

So once the de-junking is completed, some of what we are throwing away may be put in a garage sale. Typically the goods in a garage sale are unwanted items from the household with the homeowners conducting the sale. One popular motivation for a garage sale is "spring cleaning". So yes, in this area, May seems to be the month we start de-junking our houses and holding garage sales. We seem to do this happily because we hope spring has finally arrived.

Speaking of doing something happily, guess what else we do in this area during the last part of May and first part of June? Yes, we plant flowers! Did you know that people in the ancient Orient used a method of attracting positive forces and staying off negative ones? Today, people worldwide are practicing the ancient methods of Feng Shui to improve the flow of positive forces in their lives. Living plants and flowers can alter or harness chi (positive energy.)

Think about the last time you received flowers. Perhaps you were pleasantly surprised. Chances are you smiled when you were handed the arrangement. And as the flowers' fragrance filled your room, it's likely that your mood lifted.

In his book Eight Weeks to Optimum Health, Dr. Andrew Weil recommends purchasing flowers regularly to reduce stress and bring beauty into your everyday life. This is true for both women and men. You are probably asking: Did you say it was O.K. to purchase flowers for men?

Ten years ago- maybe even only five years ago - sending flowers to a man was relatively unheard of. After all, what macho man wants to admit he likes to take time to smell the roses? But ours is a world where change comes fast, and today it's not uncommon to see men going to the spa for a facial or mud bath, or sitting down in the chair for a manicure. Next to these kinds of things, flowers for men seem downright quaint! Samantha Green, of ProFlowers said: "Based on the opinions of most guys we've talked to, it's probably best to avoid pastel colors or arrangements that are too busy. Choose a "masculine" monochromatic palette, such as dendrobium orchid bouquets in white or purple, or robust sunflower bouquets, which are often good flowers for guys. More than a few men told us they enjoy tropical flowers like birds of paradise as they have "personality" and a "strong appearance." Then again, some flowers have meaning. For example; chrysanthemums mean friendship, daisies mean loyalty, red roses mean romantic love, yellow roses mean friendship, alstroemeria mean devotion, and bamboo means good luck.

Flowers are a positive energy, they are now in bloom and our Dads are something positive in our lives. This Sunday is Father's Day so we are all saying to all dads, "Happy Father's Day!! Enjoy the flowers - we love you!"

Two Hills resident Ken Hlewka's 1928 Ford Model A pickup (above right) won three awards at the show: the People's Choice, the Oldest Vehicle and first place in the Antiques category. RCMP Cpl. Kevin McGillivray brought down a 125th anniversary squad car, in the old black-and-white-with-red-light-on-top style, and attracted plenty of attention at the 50 St. and 49 Ave. intersection.

The 1953 MG Midget brought to town by T. Knowler of Lloydminster (right) got a bit of last minute attention. The MG placed second in the Antique category.

Vernon 'Babe' Sharkey, Grace Meger and friends were "Just Jammin'" on Main Street throughout the Show and Shine, with nonstop country music.

Changed-up car show

Laurier Dechaine of Mallaig won the Convertibles category with a 1965 Plymouth, second going to David Nestorowich and his 1964 Ford.

Lynall Slywka's 1972 Chev pickup won the Under Restoration award, while a 1956 Monarch with continental kit owned by Richard Stacey of Calgary took the trophy for Furthest Away.

Ken Stewart, Ken Hlewka and Don Marchuk of Vermilion won Exhibitors' draws, while Rocky Wade Sr., Gary Suvak and Lynall Slywka won the draws for car models.

One of the day's competitions had a close tie to the show and shine, as a long lineup of ladies tried their hand at changing spark plugs in record time, with Connie Henderson's two-hands-on approach winning her the top prize of cash and a Co-op gift certificate. Stephanie Ferris, placing second, and Amanda Stacey, third, took home cash prizes.

More prizes were on offer for the final event of the day, the timed-event Super Spouse challenge, which saw teams of two, one riding in a wheelbarrow, make it through a course of pylons and over a narrow ramp, through more pylons and back to the finish line as fast as possible. Jason and Jenny Cook earned $200 in gift certificates and $100 cash for the fastest run, Calgarians Richard and Amanda Stacey took home $100 cash and t-shirts from Quin's for their second place finish, and Trevor Quin and Renita Senz earned $100 for third.

Throughout the day, Grace Meger and friends provided old-time country music and the south end of the three-block event, while the Country Playboys started off the entertainment bright and early on the chamber's stage during the pancake breakfast, with F. G. Miller High School teacher Shane Larmand and some of his protégées showing off their considerable talent during the afternoon.

It was a successful first year for the outdoor trade show, which brought in about 30 vendors, selling everything from quilts to woodwork to health products, offering face painting, displaying real estate offerings and a wide variety of lunch and snack choices. F.G. Miller Jr./Sr. High School SPRING PRE-REGISTRATION

On June 15 and 16 from 4:00 pm to 7:00 pm - F.G. Miller School will be registering currently enrolled students for the 2011/2012 school year. Our intention is to provide parents with the opportunity to register their children early to avoid the August registration line-ups.

During these evenings you will be able to fully register your children for the fall school year. All the necessary paper work will be done and you will be able to pay your child's school fees immediately or with a postdated cheque.

Why register during Spring Registration? Avoid coming to August registration, thereby avoiding the rush * Spread out costs by paying for the school fees now and only supplies in the fall.

Who can register during the Spring Registration? Resident students living in the Elk Point attendance area.

IMPORTANT: AB Education has mandated that all students have a birth certificate / passport on file, as well as an AB Health Care Number. If you have not previously supplied us a copy of these documents, please bring them with you.

Midget Sox re-tiered, Peewees doing well

Review Sports

After the first month of ball, the Midget Sox were sitting in first place overall, on top of all of the 30 other midget teams in the Baseball Alberta competitive league. A few weeks have passed now since the Midget Sox have played, but the league has now finished it's re-tiering and re-scheduled, and the Sox will travel to Edmonton this coming weekend to play four games against some of the other top teams in the north, Grand Prairie, South Jasper Place, Stony Plain and East Park. This will be a real test for the depth of the Sox bullpen, four games in two days will likely burn up about six or eight pitchers. After this next weekend we will see if the boys are for real or were they just fortunate enough to play some weaker teams in the first month. Having been in the dug out with this team, I'm betting these guys will have a good weekend and will come home winning three out of four or at least .500.

Down in the Peewee division the Sox have been playing extremely well too, winning two games in Lac

La Biche on the last weekend of May, then winning over Cold Lake on Monday and St. Paul on Tuesday before losing a close one against a strong Bonnyville team at home on Thursday. A solid team effort in all the games, strong pitching from the rotation of Austin "Ozzie" Stafford, Eric Stuparyk, Brian Bazian and Ethan Tremblay. Deep base hits by Perry Glambek and Matthew Mohyluk, great snags on first by Caleb MacKinnon, super base running and stealing by Bailey Gagnard and behind the mask calling the signs to the pitchers was Ross McGillivray.

And now for the K.A.Campbell quote of the week." It happens in a thousand diamonds in so many different towns and villages. We pass them on the highway, these summer roadside attractions. Games played full of meaning for a few spectators and players and on no consequence to anyone else - never to be recorded. We reclaim them only in our memory and I suppose in our continuing fascination with this great game. It may not be life itself, but it sure feels like it." Last week's answer to-" I remember a reporter asking me for a quote, and I didn't know what a quote was. I thought it was some kind of soft drink."- Joe DiMaggio.
